Antigua & Barbuda Citizenship

“Paradise Starts Here”

Introduction to the Island

Resting along the eastern coastline of the Caribbean Sea, the twin-island nation of Antigua and Barbuda is in every way, a tourist paradise with lush hillsides, thick rainforests, and a breathtaking coastline. Having gained independence from the UK in 1981, the country is currently a member of the United Nations, CARICOM, and the Commonwealth of Nations.

~~~ Two Islands, One Heart ~~~

Primarily driven by the tourism sector, which contributes nearly 60% of its GDP and 40% of the investments, the country's economy is one of the strongest among all the Caribbean countries. Antigua is governed by a parliamentary, representative democratic monarchy and follows the Common English Law Model.

The Program

Ever since the program was first put forth in 2013, Antigua's CBI program has been a popular choice among eagle-eyed business professionals and high-net-worth individuals. Unlike some of the other CBI programs on offer, applicants are not required to either learn about the country's history or speak their official language. Lastly, applicants are not required to reside in the country during the time of the application process.

The Cost

There are two main pathways to obtain Citizenship in the country. The first is a non refundable donation to the Government - National Development Fund and the second is by investment into a Government approved Real Estate Project.
